

Intermediate Sunday School - Ages Nine and Up

The Sunday School program for older students, ages nine and up, provides opportunities for children to actively participate in lessons that center upon the elements and flow of the Sunday service; service prayers; and seasonal readings from the Old and New Testaments.

Students will occasionally participate in the service itself as readers or through presentations. Students will also take part in activities that bring awareness of the church seasons, and provide opportunities for prayer and reflection upon god's daily presence in their lives.
